[Redacted]

2. Instructed Reproduction to work over the weekend if necessary in order to get the cable procedure for the field reproduced in time to send it out on Monday morning.

3. Brigadier General John B. Ackerman, Department of the Air Force, telephoned to say that several days ago General Smith had talked to him about the possibility of recalling retired Air Force officers to active duty, indicating that CIA would be willing to reimburse, etc. General Ackerman said that he had explored this suggestion and saw no objection whatever to it. However, he requested that we submit a test case if possible. I told him that I would try to do so in the very near future. H
