2. [REDACTED] called to say that he needed a few more days to complete his study on the "Fast Pouch"; I told him to take it. He also indicated that he had a "brand new idea" on paperwork which he wanted to discuss with me when he saw me next.

5. [REDACTED] telephoned to say that he was having exceptionally good luck with certain monitoring activities from a location near [REDACTED] and asked me to keep this in mind when I inspected [REDACTED]. (He does not wish to send anyone with me on the trip to [REDACTED])

6. Mr. Wills of the Fairfax County Chamber of Commerce telephoned and requested that he be advised when we had awarded grading and construction contracts at Langley. I told him that I would be glad to comply with his request. (Apparently he wants to try to get a food concession to feed the workers.)

7. Attended a meeting which Kirk conducted for Bob Macy in connection with Bob's trip to the Far East. It was composed of an over-all briefing by Kirk on the functions of the Inspector General's Staff and how they went about their business. I think it served well to advise Bob that there was someone in the Agency looking at all aspects of our business, including the evaluation of various projects and programs. This was followed by a
