DIARY NOTES

DD/S W

31 May 1962

1. I talked to [redacted] and Dick Helms about the static display of certain Clandestine Services equipment, and we agreed to pull out all stops in order to try to complete this by 14 June. [redacted] is handling this for the Deputy Director (Support).)

2. [redacted] was out to brief me on certain developments in connection with emergency planning. As I understand it, President Kennedy has directed that the entire problem of continuity of Government in case of emergency be restudied and that the Office of Emergency Planning complete this action during August of this year. Milton, therefore, recommended that the matters which he brought to my attention in his memorandum of 20 March 1962 be held in abeyance with the exception of the succession list.

3. I approved of [redacted] taking leave from 1 July to 28 or 29 July.

4. I advised Mr. Kirkpatrick that while [redacted] and I were in favor of transferring ELINT responsibilities to the Deputy Director (Research), we felt strongly that this had to be worked out very carefully. Kirk has arranged to have [redacted] contact [redacted] in an attempt to work out the necessary details.

5. [redacted] advised me that a briefcase belonging to [redacted] had popped out of a courier car and had been picked up by a Navy officer. The briefcase contained highly sensitive material, but Bob believed that there has been no compromise. (However, he was looking into the situation which permitted it to be lost from a courier car and will make a further report.)

6. [redacted] also advised me of a [redacted] who with his wife has been mixed up with the police and the FBI; in fact, he has been in jail. I told Bob it sounded to me like [redacted] had better resign without delay unless there were extenuating circumstances which would not appear on the surface. (Bob will interview him tomorrow and will give me a further report on the case.)
