3. [REDACTED] advised me that a member of the National Capital Planning Commission staff had telephoned about [REDACTED]. 5. I spent considerable time reviewing the case of [REDACTED] a JOT candidate and son of [REDACTED]. John Tietjen felt very strongly that he should be disqualified for medical reasons, not only for the JOT program but also for employment anywhere in the Agency. I have advised General Carter of this situation and have received word from him that [REDACTED] should be treated the same as any other applicant.
