1. I telephoned Emmett Echols in Deep Creek, Maryland, and asked him to return from annual leave to accompany the Director when the latter sees Senator Russell at noon on Tuesday, 4 August.

2. Frank Ecker telephoned to say that the Director will mention our printing plant to Senator Russell on Tuesday. Frank hoped that we would not take any irrevocable steps prior to that time. I assured him that we would not.

3. I met with [REDACTED], Chief of Station, [REDACTED]. He had no real criticism of the administrative workload required at the [REDACTED] station. He was highly complimentary of [REDACTED], who will return to [REDACTED] for a second tour of duty after his present home leave.
