2. In checking schedules, it was finally agreed that Meissner would come to the Agency next Monday, 14 July 1975, at 10:30 a.m., to meet with [redacted] (The addition of the latter being suggested by Mr. Carver.) Meissner explained that he is interested in the Middle East situation and linkages to oil. He said he is not interested so much in the price situation but in the broader issues. He said he would also like to talk about settlement alternatives in the Persian Gulf. Meissner said that [redacted]
