[redacted] Called Jack Marsh, Counsellor to the President, regarding his call on Thursday about Chairman George Mahon's, House Appropriations Committee, concern over the appointment of [redacted] [redacted] as special counsel. Marsh said he had no problems with my contacting Mahon in fact he encouraged me to do so.

17. [redacted] Received a call from Jack Marsh, Counsellor to the President for Legislative Affairs, who said that Representative George H. Mahon (D., Tex.) had contacted the White House and expressed opposition to the Agency's appointment of [redacted] as special counsel. Marsh was interested in my reaction to Mahon's attitude and asked whether anyone had alerted the White House on this matter in advance. I gave Marsh my rationale for Mr. Mahon's position, which is based on pressure I believe he is receiving from certain members of the Defense Appropriations Subcommittee, and I advised him that the matter of a special counsel had been discussed in advance with Philip Buchen, Counsel to the President, and [redacted] had talked with Buchen this morning about the selection of [redacted] and Buchen had indicated he thought [redacted] was a good choice. Marsh thanked me for this information. He said this was probably a matter that would receive the attention of the President.

18. [redacted] Mr. Duckett called to advise me of the contact made with him by General Don Johnson, Director, Defense Nuclear Agency, concerning Duckett's testimony before Senator William Proxmire (D., Wis.) Appropriations Subcommittee regarding the Soyuz/Apollo flight. General Johnson told Duckett that he was in agreement with Duckett's statement as released by Senator Proxmire and that he [redacted] intends to contact George Lowe, Deputy Director of NASA about the danger of proceeding with the flight while the present Soviet spacecraft is in orbit. Mr. Duckett merely wanted to alert me to these facts.

19. [redacted] Emerson Brown, INR, State, called in connection with a request they had received from the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on Multinational Corporations, for information on political payments in Korea by [redacted] Brown said that the responsible State official wanted to know what information the Agency possessed and said he had been told by Agency officials that they would not respond without a written request from State. In response to my question, Brown said the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on Multinational Corporations' request was limited to State information and on that basis, I recommended that State's response be limited to that request, explaining that we had met with the Subcommittee staff on this subject; that as a matter of policy, we prefer to deal directly with the requester and the Subcommittee is aware that U. S. corporations are outside of our general charter and any substantial information we have incidentally collected is referred to the appropriate departments or agencies. Brown agreed with our approach and felt that the State official was being too assertive. [redacted] the Korean desk, also advised.

[Redacted] Called Clark McFadden, General Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee, regarding Senator Dewey Bartlett's trip to Somalia and raised with McFadden the possibility of our briefing Bartlett before he departed. McFadden said the Senator was leaving at 1:00 p.m. this afternoon, that the material we had given him (McFadden) which in turn had been made available to the Senator, plus the briefings he had received from DIA, McFadden thought would give the Senator all he needed.

16. [Redacted] Met with Representative Clarence Brown (R., Ohio) and we discussed his interest in pursuing the question of Capitol Hill as a target for foreign intelligence services. He agreed with me that this was outside our domain and he will contact Director Clarence Kelley, FBI, on this matter.
