[redacted] BRIEFING Accompanied [redacted] OCI, to a briefing of Representative John Murphy (D., N. Y.) in connection with his trip to Korea as head of a congressional delegation to participate in South Korean Veterans Day. A number of personal staff sat in on the briefing including: Larry O'Brien and Carl Perian. Following his visit to Korea, Mr. Murphy will travel to Indochina in connection with his House Committee on Merchant Marine & Fisheries responsibilities on development of the Nation's Continental Shelf. In late November, following his return, he said he would like to get together with us and share his observations. Today's briefing lasted for about two hours and was very well received with the Congressman being an old Korean hand and asking a number of questions. Unclassified biographical material and maps were provided and we gave the Congressman, for his use only, a classified OER unattributable report on the state of the economy in Korea. Mr. Murphy will be addressing the Korean General Assembly and the university in Seoul. He will meet with representatives of the State Department and other agencies in preparation for the speeches.

[redacted] LIAISON Left for Ed Braswell, Chief Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee, two blind memos on the legislative intent that the details of congressional briefings under Section 662 of the Foreign Assistance Act on Presidential Findings are to be provided orally pursuant to national security interests. This is a follow-up of an earlier conversation I had with Braswell concerning the amount of detail that is placed in the record during these briefings.

[redacted] LIAISON Met with J. Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Subcommittee on Internal Security, ~~Senate Judiciary Committee~~, to indicate that we would be providing a report to the Senate Select Committee on our dealings with [redacted] formerly of his staff, who had put us in touch with an informant of the Subcommittee who in turn provided information for use in the protection of Mr. Helms and an Agency facility. Sourwine appreciated our interest in making Senator James Eastland (D., Miss.) and himself aware of this before the event and he said he had no problems as long as the name of the informant was not disclosed and I told him it would not be. [redacted] D/OS, has been advised.
