25X1 13. [Redacted] LEGISLATION Called Ronald McCluskey, Assistant Counsel, Subcommittee on Retirement & Employee Benefits, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, and discussed retirement legislation now before the Subcommittee with particular emphasis on creditable service and also H.R. 6227, right of counsel for Federal employees which McCluskey feels will be approved by the House and the Senate. The Subcommittee is now engaged in extensive oversight hearings of the retirement system and he believes they should get to the creditable service segment after the first of the year.

25X1 14. [Redacted] LIAISON Duke Short, staff member, Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Internal Security, called inquiring as to the status of the Agency's review of the papers prepared by [Redacted] 25X1 [Redacted] in connection with his testimony in the near future before the Subcommittee. I told him that our review would be completed within a few days and I would get the material to him as soon as possible. [Redacted] 25X1 was advised.

25X1 15. [Redacted] LIAISON Met briefly with Jim Cline, Counsel, House Judiciary Subcommittee on Immigration, Citizenship, and International Law, and left with him a blind memo concerning the results of a check of Agency files he requested on several individuals in Interpol alleged to be former Nazis. He said he would be back in touch if he needed any further information.

25X1 16. [Redacted] ADMINISTRATIVE Picked up from Charles Snodgrass, House Appropriations Defense Subcommittee staff, a letter for the Director.

25X1 6. [] LEGISLATION Stopped by the [] Judiciary Subcommittee on Constitutional Rights to discuss pending criminal justice information legislation, S. 2008, with Doug Lea, Counsel. He gave me a draft of certain modifications that the staff had made to the bill and asked me if I could prepare for him some examples of Agency problems with the bill.

25X1 7. [] LIAISON Took a call from Ed Schallert, in the office of Representative Les Aspin (D., Wis.), who inquired about the validity of statistics of the 1969 Soviet Civil Defense Manual. This Manual asserted that Soviet civil defense techniques were so good that in a massive nuclear attack on Soviet cities, only 3 to 4 percent of the urban population would be killed. Schallert asked if we could verify these statistics. After 25X1 checking with [] who called OSR, I told Schallert that we felt these figures were definitely propaganda and that the actual figures would be higher. However, we had not conducted a study to determine the actual figure, but that he could probably get these statistics from the targeting people at the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

25X1 8. [] LIAISON Talked to Wes Clark, in the office of John O. Marsh, Counsellor to the President, about a couple of items on the Administration's Action Plan on Intelligence. Clark's name had been given me by Russ Rourke, also of Marsh's office, whom I called earlier. Clark said the White House was no longer planning to make a general approach to the congressional leadership on the importance of intelligence, but would deal with the leadership on an issue-by-issue basis. This information was reported to General Wilson's task force.

25X1 9. [] FAA BRIEFING Accompanied the Director to a briefing of the Defense Subcommittee of the House Appropriations Committee on the President's finding of 10 August 1975 under Section 662 of the Foreign Assistance Act. (See Memorandum for the Record)

25X1 13. [Redacted] LIAISON In follow-up of my conversation with Tim Ingram, Staff Director, House Government Operations Subcommittee on Government Information and Individual Rights, a call was made to set up an appointment with Chairwoman Bella Abzug (D., N. Y.) and she asked to speak to me. She said that 25X1 an appointment would not be necessary since all I would have to do is drop off the [Redacted] material to her so that she could read it at her convenience and that she would lock it up in her office safe at night when she was through. I referred her to Mr. Colby's letters to her of 15 August and 3 October and said that pursuant to them I would not be authorized to relinquish permanent possession of the material. She was very upset and after a lengthy exchange in which I attempted to explain the situation as I saw it, she said that I should be in her office at 0830 in the morning.

25X1 14. [Redacted] LIAISON Subsequent to my conversation with Chairwoman Bella Abzug (D., N. Y.), Chairman Jack Brooks, House Government Operations Committee, called concerning 25X1 the [Redacted] material. (See Memorandum for the Record.)

25X1 15. [Redacted] LIAISON Called Jim Cline, Counsel, House Judiciary Subcommittee on Immigration, Citizenship, & International Law, and informed his secretary that we had prepared some material in response to Cline's request for any information concerning alleged Nazis in Interpol and that I would be by to drop it off.

25X1 16. [Redacted] LIAISON Jim Michie, staff member, ~~Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Administrative Practice and Procedure,~~ called inquiring as to whether the Agency had made a decision to release

25X1 Later in the day, I received a call from [Redacted] OGC, advising that David Rudovsky, a lawyer for the [Redacted] had called 25X1 [Redacted] on behalf of the family and cleared our furnishing the [Redacted] documents to Chairman Edward M. Kennedy's (D., Mass.) Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Administrative Practice and Procedure.
