9. [Redacted] INTELLIGENCE BRIEFING

25X1

Talked to Lewis Hunter, GAO, in response to his call yesterday and told him that I had made arrangements for Bob Brady, of his staff, to come to the Agency for a briefing [Redacted] at 4:00 p.m. this afternoon. I reiterated that this briefing should be for GAO's background purposes only and also that neither at Headquarters or in the field would we discuss Agency operations with Brady. Hunter said he understood completely and would be sure that Brady did also.

I told the Director we would prepare such a paper.

We arranged for a meeting on Monday, October 6. He also asked if he could obtain several more copies of Where's What. He asked finally if the Agency had decided on whether to provide a witness to the hearings on the electronic surveillance technology being held by Senator John Tunney (D., Calif.). I told him that our position was the same as it had been when he had talked to [REDACTED] several months ago.
