1. [REDACTED] INTELLIGENCE BRIEFING

Called Dorothy Fosdick and Stuart Statler, both on the staff of the Senate Government Operations Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations, and advised them that we have a revised estimate on Soviet grain. I explained that it was no big deal but we thought we should let them know about it as a follow-up to our earlier briefing. I told them we could handle it over the phone and would have [REDACTED] OER, call them both. However, if they want more detail, we can arrange a briefing. STAT

2. [REDACTED] HEARINGS Took a call from Walter Sheridan, on the staff of the Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Administrative Practice and Procedure. I told him that I had not yet gotten a complete report on his inquiry about Agency drug testing activities. I will call him as soon as I get the information.

STAT

3. [REDACTED] INTELLIGENCE BRIEFING Took a call from Clark McFadden, Counsel on the staff of the Senate Armed Services Committee, who wanted some background on the NID article of 27 August 1975 concerning Soviet missiles and arms limitation. I arranged for [REDACTED] OCI, to call him to elaborate on his interest. McFadden had said that he was preparing a report for the Chairman of the Armed Services Committee, Senator John Stennis (D., Miss.), to put this whole thing in perspective. He wanted a briefing at 11:00 a.m. on 28 August 1975.

STAT

4. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called John Allen, Legislative Assistant to Representative Robert L. F. Sikes (D., Fla.), to advise him that [REDACTED] was a liar and that the FBI had a record on him. Should he wish to pursue the matter, he could take it up with the Bureau. This involves a very wild story that [REDACTED] had been peddling to Representative Sikes and Allen asked us to check it out. 1. [REDACTED] HEARINGS Called Walter J. Sheridan, Chief Investigator of the Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Administrative Practice and Procedure, and advised him that I would not be able to respond to his request until tomorrow or the day after. I stated that there have been no LSD testing on unwitting persons since 1963. Furthermore, the Director had issued instructions on this subject in 1973 and as far as I know there are no such programs in being today. He said that they are now trying to identify whether hearings are required and should there be hearings on this subject it would be government wide and not directed at CIA. [REDACTED] DDS&T, is pulling together the status of any programs for me.

2. [REDACTED] INTELLIGENCE BRIEFING Accompanied [REDACTED] OSI, to a briefing of Dorothy Fosdick and Richard Perle, of the staff of the Senate Government Operations Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations, on technology transfer to the Soviet Union. There were no major problems with the briefing. (See Memo for the Record to be prepared by

3. [REDACTED] LIAISON House Appropriations Committee. Took a call from Ralph Preston, staff assistant for the House Appropriations Subcommittee on Defense, who said that a former House Select Committee staffer, Edward Roeder, who is a free lance writer, was writing an article which would include comments on how the Agency handles the transcripts of testimony before congressional committees. Roeder wanted to know whether this method was classified. I explained that we were storing the transcripts at the request of the Committee and from our point of view, that fact was not classified but the judgment on this classification rests with the committee. Preston said he would check further, but he was inclined to consider it unclassified.

1. [Redacted] LIAISON Took a call from William Nichols, Acting General Counsel, OMB, who said he had received our letter of 11 August 1975 on the Agency's position concerning garnishment. Mr. Nichols felt that our request for a legislative exemption would exacerbate the Agency's position in this connection. He said that a new Executive Order would soon be issued announcing new Civil Service regulations on this subject. The new regulations will also be issued very shortly. He recommended that we read the regulations carefully as it will permit us to continue to handle our special problems in the usual way. For the moment, requests for legislative relief should be held in abeyance.

STAT

2. [Redacted] HEARING Took a call from Walter J. Sheridan, Chief Investigator of the Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Administrative Practice and Procedure. He said that his Subcommittee and the Senate Labor and Public Welfare Subcommittee on Health were planning to hold joint hearings. He asked whether the Agency was conducting any drug testing at this time and what sort of programs, including clinical behavior research, were being conducted by the Agency. I said we were not now conducting any drug testing but would have to check on the latter. He wanted to know when our last drug testing program was and what it involved. He suggested that I go back five years in responding to his request for both drug and behavior testing. I said I would check and call him back on the 26th. A check of the Congressional Staff Directory showed that Senator Edward M. Kennedy (D., Mass.) chairs both committees.

5. [REDACTED] INTELLIGENCE BRIEFING In response to her call, made arrangements for [REDACTED] OWI, to brief Dorothy Fosdick and Richard Perle, Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations, Senate Government Operations Committee staff, at 2:30 p. m. today on SALT. STAT

6. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Mike Oppenheimer, GAO, in follow-up of his earlier conversation with [REDACTED] on GAO's request for documents concerning the Mayaguez incident. Oppenheimer advised that the National Security Council had agreed to release to the GAO the documents and that this should free us from any constraints in providing the material requested of us. During his absence on leave, Oppenheimer suggested we contact Walter Ochinko or Stan Rothhouse. STAT

STAT

7. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Les Janka, NSC, who confirmed that indeed the decision had been made to release documents to GAO on the Mayaguez incident but it was limited to only the material that had already been released to the Congress. Janka said a copy of their report had been sent to the Agency. STAT

STAT

8. [REDACTED] LIAISON In response to his earlier call, J. Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Subcommittee on Internal Security, Senate Judiciary Committee, was advised that the Martinez document in which he had expressed an interest had been delivered to Al Tarabochia, of the Subcommittee staff, on Friday. 7. [redacted] LIAISON/FOIA George C. Armstrong, Research Assistant to Representative John M. Ashbrook (R., Ohio), called and asked for the telephone number of retired Agency employee, [redacted] Armstrong said he wanted to discuss with [redacted] a resolution supporting CIA which Representative Ashbrook is contemplating submitting to the American Legion Convention now being held in Minnesota. I gave him the telephone number [redacted] after checking with Angus Thuermer's office.

I told Armstrong that we hope within the next few days to get a reply to Representative Ashbrook's letter as to our problems in implementing Freedom of Information within the Agency. Armstrong said anytime this week or the next would be fine as they are also writing to other agencies and had not yet heard from all of them and also the Congressman is now out of town.

10. [redacted] LIAISON Called John Seibert, Special Litigation Section, Criminal Division, Department of Justice. [redacted] OGC, gave me Mr. Seibert's name and encouraged me to call him. I explained to Seibert that we had received a congressional inquiry on behalf of a constituent for the names of all plaintiffs suing the Agency over our domestic activities. I asked Seibert if there would be any Justice Department position or objection to us providing the names. After checking with some colleagues, Seibert phoned back and encouraged us to release the names, explaining that they were a matter of public record.

11. [redacted] LIAISON Called the congressional liaison office at the Energy Research and Development Administration. I spoke with Ray Marble who explained certain procedures regarding their association with the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy. These matters were of interest to the task force now developing the policy on Government Accounting Office audits of the Agency. Marble could not answer all my questions and referred me to George Murphy, Staff Director of the Joint Committee. I called Murphy later in the day and he was very helpful, on the

1. [REDACTED] LEGISLATION Called Bob Hull, State Department, to inquire whether State Department doctors were pressing for malpractice protection such as currently being considered by Congress for Armed Services medical personnel, and whether he knew of any moves within the Administration to protect all civilian Government medical personnel. Hull said he knew of no moves toward this end, but that State Department doctors were grumbling over their need for additional protection and the Department would certainly support such a move. We also discussed the issue of doctors' salaries, which Hull says is a problem at State as it is with Agency physicians. I have been in communication with [REDACTED] of OMS about both of these problems. STAT

2. [REDACTED] LEGISLATION Jim Oliver, OMB, called to inform that he would be working with Hilda Schreiber, OMB, on our proposed legislation to amend CIARDS. He said that Schreiber would be on leave for two weeks and asked that the proposal be held up since the President is expected to make a decision in the next two weeks regarding the proposed "one percent kicker" legislation. In the interim, we will submit revised pages reflecting the agreed upon pages which will facilitate securing clearance in OMB. Oliver said he would present the strongest case possible for the Agency when it is submitted to Mr. Lynn, OMB, for final clearance.

STAT

3. [REDACTED] FOIA Al Tarabochia, Chief Investigator of the Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Internal Security, called and asked if we had any information on the organization, "World Council for Peace." He also asked if there had been any updating of the publication, International Communist Front Organizations prepared in 1957 which we had then provided to the Committee.
