9.  LIAISON Left with Dorothy Fosdick, Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations, Senate Government Operations Committee staff, correspondence concerning the 11 February 1975 transcript before the Arms Control Subcommittee, Senate Armed Services Committee, as a result of the 30 September meeting of Agency representatives with Richard Perle, of the Subcommittee staff. I also provided her a short background on this subject covered in the Beecher article in the Boston Globe.

10.  LIAISON William Allen, in the office of Representative John P. Murtha (D., Pa.), called to say that he was preparing a weekly column for Mr. Murtha on certain things to try to counter some of the negative reports that have appeared in the press. He said he was trying to come up with good things that the Agency had done which could be talked about. I told him there wasn't much that could be said that was unclassified but I pointed out the Director's reference in his television appearance on Sunday to the work which the Intelligence Community had performed in alerting our policymakers to the threat of offensive missiles in Cuba at the time of the "Cuban Missile Crisis." I told Allen I would check for other instances and let him know if I came up with anything.

11.  LIAISON Charles Snodgrass, on the staff of House Appropriations Subcommittee on Defense, called to relay a message from Ralph Preston, also of that Subcommittee, that the Subcommittee wishes to keep in its files, at least for the time being, the letter the Director sent to Chairman George Mahon (D., Texas) yesterday and the enclosed memorandum. I told Snodgrass that I would talk to the Director about this and if he has any objections, I would be back in touch with him.

✓ 12.  ADMINISTRATIVE Called Max Friedersdorf, Assistant for Legislative Affairs at the White House, to express our very deep concern over the action contemplated by the House Ways and Means Committee regarding tax reform legislation now before the House Committee including a provision which would eliminate the current exemption of overseas allowances from the taxable income of Government employees.
