2. I appreciate fully the circumstances that prompted your proposal. However, they are not unique [Redacted] The same rationale you have advanced could be extended in whole, or in large part, to many other Agency employees now subject to our retirement policy.

25X1

3. Before trying to act on your proposal, therefore, I believe we need a more precise delineation of the types of employees involved (for example, I understand that a GS-11 Special Services officer would be covered by the proposed exemption as well as a number of administrative and clerical employees including the GS-08 secretary [Redacted] Also, the Director of Personnel should attach to the proposal an assessment of its impact, if approved, on the administration of our present retirement policy elsewhere in the Agency.

25X1

4. Since the above actions may require some time to complete, you will no doubt want to submit separate requests for further extensions with respect to the four employees now scheduled to retire on 30 September 1966.
