Dear [Redacted]

25X1

I am leaving on the 21st of this month for a trip to Reseda, Hawaii and Tokyo. I am extremely anxious to visit London, Cairo and Cyprus where I have many problems on my mind that I feel like I cannot reach definite conclusions on until I have actually seen the installations. I know of no pressing problems in London that will come up during my absence. [Redacted] will be in charge during my absence and can contact me by wire if it is necessary.

[Redacted] is now on temporary duty in Washington being trained by [Redacted] for assignment to the London Bureau. It is contemplated that [Redacted] will depart from Washington on or about 15 March. As soon as [Redacted] arrives, it is my plan to order [Redacted] to return to the United States. It is perfectly all right for you to inform [Redacted] so that she can begin to make arrangements for reassignment.
