Dear David:

25X1

After more than a year of loyal and commendable service to the [Redacted] we look with considerable regret upon your decision to leave us. The recognition your supervisors have given your work throughout your career, plus the wide range of friendships you have created are testimony to an enviable record upon which you will always be able to reflect with extreme satisfaction.

As you leave us, I am certain that I speak for all your friends, both in Headquarters and abroad, when I express the confidence that you will continue in your new assignment to render the creditable performance that has been a consistent personal characteristic throughout your service with this organization.

Sincerely,

25X1
