Dear Gus:

Subject: Assignment Plans

Your present tour in [Redacted] ends in July 1967, and we must therefore make plans for your next assignment. We would like to offer you the following choices:

25X1

- a) Extension of your present tour up to one year without home leave;
- b) Home leave and return to [Redacted] for a second tour;
- c) Reassignment to Headquarters at the end of your present tour (or with a short extension as described below).

Should there be some other assignment for which you would like to be considered, please let me know.

If you want to return to Headquarters in 1967, it would be very helpful to FBIS if you would extend to about 1 September. This would give the Editorial Division the benefit of your replacement's services through the greater part of the summer. You undoubtedly remember our difficult personnel situation during the summer months in Headquarters.

Please discuss this matter with your bureau chief so that he may advise me of your decision by teletype message.

I hope that you and your family are enjoying your tour in [Redacted] and best wishes for the New Year.

25X1

Sincerely,

[Redacted]
