

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
WASHINGTON

30 January 1959

Dear Paul,

I attach a copy of a letter we received here from one of your people, plus a self-explanatory reply. Frankly I am not immediately swayed by this suggestion, but leave it to you to consider whether this aspect of CIA's activities merits a role in the series you arrange for us.

I'm looking forward to our sessions on March 11th and 12th, and will be happy to consult if you have any programming questions.

Sincerely,

Edward F. Rivinus
