ADMINISTRATIVE INFORMATION

The offices of the Interagency Training Program for International Narcotics Control are located in Room 1106 of the Foreign Service Institute, 1400 Key Boulevard, Rosslyn, Virginia.

The classroom for all classes unless otherwise announced is Room 305.

The Interagency Training Program for International Narcotics Control is responsible to the Foreign Service Institute which is the in-service training arm of the Department of State.

All class days will begin at 9:00 a.m. and end at 5:00 p.m. unless otherwise announced. Lunch hour will normally be from 12:00 to 1:00 p.m. No leave is authorized during the training program. If you must be absent because of illness or other emergency, you should call 557-3931 prior to 9:00 a.m.

The Office of the Registrar, 557-4510, accepts phone messages for students. These messages will be placed in a box bearing the first letter of your last name. These boxes are located in Room 100.

Mail may be addressed to you as follows:

NAME
Foreign Service Institute
Department of State
Washington, D. C. 20520

Eating Facilities - There is a Drug Fair located on the "C" level of the Foreign Service Institute. Also within walking distance you can easily locate the Orleans House, the Embassy Rosslyn, and Emersons--all located on Wilson Boulevard within a block of the Institute.

Shuttle Bus - The Institute operates a shuttle bus between Rosslyn and the principal buildings in Washington. This bus departs from the front of the building at :02, :17, :32, and :47 minutes after each hour between nine and five. Busses returning from the Department of State leave the North entrance of the main building on the hour and quarter-hour, also from nine to five.

Library - The Library of the Foreign Service Institute is located on the third floor where required reading will be located. For other items of interest about your country of assignment, please consult the Librarian.

Please feel free to call on the Staff Assistant in Room 1106 if there is other information you need. We will assist in every way possible to make this training program an enjoyable and rewarding experience.
