B. Examples of Outstanding Service or Support (Continued)

- 25X1 10. During the past quarter Graphics Register photo analysts assisted the Office of Operations and the DD/P in debriefing sources and appraising photo collections for intelligence exploitation. In response to numerous requirements on Latin America served by Graphics Register, [redacted] arranged for the Head of our NRA/WH Desk to visit and screen 5,200 color slides and 40,000 feet of motion picture film at the Alcoa Corporation. Our FE/P Desk Head, at DD/P's request, visited [redacted] to review a sampling of some 6,000 slides on the Sino-Sov Bloc owned by a West German national. The GR representative's evaluation of the material and his recommendation on the inadvisability of further exploitation of source were the basis for DD/P's closing of this case.
- 25X1 11. Members of U.S. delegations to the Soviet Union during the past summer were valuable sources of new photographic information. For example, 253 slides taken by members of [redacted] 25X1 [redacted] delegation were screened by our USSR Desk Head under arrangements by an ORR analyst who was a member of the Delegation. Also, a member of the [redacted] 25X1 [redacted] to the USSR was brought to the Division by a representative of the BW Branch of OSI where his excellent collection of photos was screened by our USSR Desk Head.
- 25X1 12. Acquisitions through the Graphics Coordinator Program totaled over 8,000 photographs in response to specific requests and long range country requirements during this quarter. For example, the Graphics Coordinator [redacted] answered specific requirements by furnishing photos of a number of industrial installations in Java; he supplied photos of Indonesian native types to illustrate NIS Chapter 100, and he sent in timely current intelligence photography on [redacted] 25X1 [redacted] and the riots and demonstrations on the formation of Malaysia.

4. Graphics Register continues to emphasize coverage of Cuba. In June, three hours of unedited motion picture film taken by a correspondent in 1963 was shown to SAS and DIA personnel. Most of the footage was concerned with working conditions and family life.
5. Activity on the Personality Desk included photographs supplied for Briefing Books on General Taylor's assignment to Saigon, General Le May's trip to Europe, Chancellor Erhard's visit to the U. S., Japanese participants of the U.S. Japanese Committee on Scientific Cooperation, and BR Handbooks on Indonesia and Israel.
6. The Personality Desk received requests for 3,624 personality photographs and of this number, through file search and use of our unique collection facilities, GR was able to furnish 3,222 photographs.
7. May Day Parade Coverage: Initial activity centered on the immediate reproduction and dissemination of news wire photos of the military hardware in the Moscow Parade and obtaining a videotape of the complete Havana Parade. On 4 May we received selected copies of the Attache photography of which 15 sets were reproduced for CIA customers on the same day. On 8 May GR obtained one complete set of 3,000 photographs of the Attache reporting from DIA and produced additional copies of selected prints for OSI and ORR. All of the expedite CIA photo reproduction work was done in the GR crash lab.
