

1
100
A

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

INTELLIGENCE OFFICER (GS-15)

QUALIFICATIONS

25X1X4

1. In general, this intelligence officer should have the qualifications necessary to be the Central Intelligence Agency expert for [REDACTED] intelligence and for directing the [REDACTED].

2. In particular, he should:

25X1A8a

a. Have a full appreciation of the separate and collective [REDACTED] potentials inherent in political, economic, and military measures adopted by the United States and important foreign governments.

25X1X4

25X1X4

b. Be keenly aware of the role of the [REDACTED] aspects of national intelligence in United States security and policy planning.

c. Possess specialized background and experience such as:

25X1X4

(1) Participation in [REDACTED] and strategic propaganda planning and/or operations.

(2) Familiarity with United States and foreign governments' (especially Soviet and German) experience in [REDACTED] operations, both in peace and war.

25X1X4

(3) Experience with research on the effectiveness of plans and operations in the entire field.

CONFIDENTIAL

25X1X4

d. Have a clear understanding of the [REDACTED] effects of United States policies, decisions, attitudes, conditions, and behavior on foreign peoples and governments, and how such effects bear upon United States security problems.

25X1X4

e. Be familiar with the [REDACTED] characteristics peculiar to conditions of actual war, cold war, and peace.

f. Have theoretical and practical familiarity with the methods employed in scientific attack of intelligence problems.

25X1X4

g. Have a sense of the special [REDACTED] characteristics of different population groupings in key foreign areas, as well as a continuing acquaintance with various attempts at technical and scientific study of the reactions of these people to current developments in domestic and international affairs.

CONFIDENTIAL