

*Personnel*CONFIDENTIAL

(11)

Biographic Sketch

Document No.	11
No Change in Class.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/> Declassified
Class. Changed To:	TS S O
Auth:	HR 70-2
Date:	_____
By:	oib

ALLEN W. DULLES, Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

Allen W. Dulles was born in 1893 in Watertown, New York. He is a graduate of Princeton (B.A., 1914; M.A. 1916) and of George Washington University (LL.B., 1926). He holds an LL.D. from Brown University. His career has included: teaching English at Allahabad, India (1915); a member of the American Commission to negotiate peace at the Paris Peace Conference (1918-19); First Secretary of the American Embassy in Berlin (1919); Chief of the State Department's Division of Near Eastern Affairs (1922-26); delegate to two Geneva Conferences, to the Arms Traffic Conference (1925), and to the Preparatory Disarmament Conference (1926), partnership in the New York law firm of Sullivan and Cromwell; and legal advisor to the American delegation at the Three Power Naval Conference, and afterward as advisor to the delegations at the Geneva Disarmament Conference of 1932 and 1933. In 1942 Mr. Dulles served as the Chief of the Office of Strategic Services in Switzerland and later headed the OSS mission to Germany. In 1948 he was designated by the President as chairman of a three-man group to survey the U.S. Intelligence system. He is at present a Director and President (on leave of absence) of the Council on Foreign Relations. He has written several books, his best known being Germany's Underground. In January of 1951 Mr. Dulles joined the CIA as Deputy Director (Plans). In August of the same year, he was appointed Deputy Director of Central Intelligence.

26 November 1952

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

Biographic Sketch

WALTER REID WOLF, Deputy Director (Administration)

Mr. Wolf was born in Mt. Vernon, New York in 1894. He received his M. A. (honoris causa) from Yale in 1918. He rose from clerk in the City Bank Farmers Trust Company (formerly Farmers Loan & Trust Co.) in 1919 to senior vice-president in January 1941. He served on the Board of Directors from 1940. He has been vice-president of the National City Bank of New York since 1936; vice-president of George Parsons Sons, Inc.; director of the Sheffield Land Company; member of the U. S. Advisory Board Zurich General Accident & Liability Insurance Co.; director of the Zurich Life Insurance Company of New York; director of the American Guarantee and Liability Insurance Company Trustee Empire City Savings Bank. Mr. Wolf served as Private, 10th Comm. Field Arty., 1916; 2nd Lt. 303rd Field Arty. A.R.F., 1917 to 1919. He was deputy manager of the War Finance Commission, New York, of the U.S. Treasury; trustee, N. Y. City Mission Society, Orphan Asylum Society of New York City Salisbury School; director of the New York School for the Deaf, White Plains, New York; United Neighborhood Houses, N. Y. City; member of the Financial Commission, N. Y. Diet Kitchen Association; and president and trustee of the Annie R. Tinker Memorial Home. He belongs to the University Club; Yale; The Links; Knickerbocker (N. Y. City) Milbrook (N. Y.) and the Hunt Club. Mr. Wolf is at present Deputy Director (Administration).

26 November 1952

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

Biographic Sketch

ROBERT AMORY, JR., Acting Deputy Director/Intelligence

Robert Amory, Jr. was born in Boston in 1915 and was educated at Harvard University, graduating from the Harvard Law School in 1938. He practiced law in New York City from 1938 to 1940. He saw military service from 1941 to 1946, rising from the rank of private to that of colonel in the Corps of Engineers of the U.S. Army. He commanded the Engineer Boat Battalion and Boat and Shore Regiment in New Britain, New Guinea, Luzon, and the Southern Philippine campaigns. From 1946 until his current assignment, he was Professor of Law at Harvard University. In March 1952, Mr. Amory was appointed Assistant Director for Research and Reports. At the present time, he is serving as Deputy Director/Intelligence during the absence of Mr. Becker.

26 November 1952

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

Biographic Sketch

GEORGE G. CAREY, Assistant Director for Operations

Mr. Carey was born in Baltimore, Maryland in 1900. He graduated from Johns Hopkins University in 1921. He was with the Royal Flying Corps during World War I collecting for Field Museum of Chicago between World War I and II. He served as Colonel in the Air Force with the Joint and Combined Staff Planners during 1941 - 45. He has been with CIA since November 1946. Mr. Carey is at present Assistant Director for Operations.

26 November 1952

CONFIDENTIAL

25X1A

Approved For Release 2001/08/07 : CIA-RDP78-04718A000500090017-1

Next 1 Page(s) In Document Exempt

Approved For Release 2001/08/07 : CIA-RDP78-04718A000500090017-1

CONFIDENTIAL

Biographic Sketch

DR. H. MARSHALL CHADWELL, Assistant Director for Scientific Intelligence

Dr. Chadwell was born in Amesbury, Massachusetts. He took his Bachelor's Degree from Dartmouth College and his Ph.D. in Physical Chemistry from Harvard. Dr. Chadwell has taught at Tufts College, Dartmouth College, Harvard, and Radcliffe College. He was a visiting professor at the University of Frankfurt, Germany. He has been Associate Director for the Natural Sciences of the Rockefeller Foundation, and Vice Chairman, Division of Chemistry and Chemical Technology, National Research Council. He has served the government in the past 12 years in the National Defense Research Committee of the Office of Scientific Research and Development; the Atomic Energy Commission; and the Central Intelligence Agency.

Dr. Chadwell is a member of various professional societies, and has been awarded the Medal for Merit (US), and the King's Medal for Service in the Cause of Freedom (UK). Much of his research work has been done on the physical chemistry of solutions and the reactions of atomic hydrogen.

26 November 1952

CONFIDENTIAL

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~Biographic SketchSHERMAN KENT, Assistant Director for National Estimates

Mr. Kent was born in Chicago in 1903. He received his PhD in history from Yale. He was an instructor of history at Yale from 1928 to 1930 and from 1933 to 1936. He was Assistant Professor from 1936 to 1940 and Director of General Studies, Yale Graduate School from 1940 to 1941. During the war, Professor Kent was Initiating Chief of the Mediterranean Section, Division of Special Information, Office of Coordination, and then became Chief of the African Section of the European African Division of the Research and Analysis Branch of OSS. In that capacity he was directly responsible for the research and intelligence of a political, economic, and geographic nature on European countries, Africa, and the Near East. In January 1946, after the Research and Analysis Branch of OSS was transferred to the Department of State, he became Acting Director of the Office of Research and Intelligence. Professor Kent was a member of the Resident Faculty of the National War College from August to December 1946. He is author of the book Strategic Intelligence (Princeton University Press, 1949) which he wrote as a Guggenheim Fellow from January through September 1947. He resumed his duties as professor of history at Yale in September 1947, and then joined CIA in January 1951. Mr. Kent is at present Assistant Director for National Estimates.

26 November 1952

CONFIDENTIAL

25X1A

Approved For Release 2001/08/07 : CIA-RDP78-04718A000500090017-1

Approved For Release 2001/08/07 : CIA-RDP78-04718A000500090017-1

CONFIDENTIAL

Biographic Sketch

HUNTINGTON D. SHELDON, Assistant Director for Current Intelligence

Huntington D. Sheldon was born in Greenwich, Connecticut in 1903. He received his B.A. degree from Yale University in 1925, and his earlier education in Europe, having attended Eton College, England for four years. After serving with the accounting firm of Price, Waterhouse and Company for two years in Europe, he returned to the United States and was engaged in the investment banking field until the outbreak of World War II. He served in the European Theater for nearly four years as an intelligence staff officer with the US Air Force. He is at present a Colonel in the USAF Reserve (Inactive). Mr. Sheldon joined CIA in June 1952. His present position is Assistant Director for Current Intelligence.

26 November 1952

CONFIDENTIAL

25X1A

Approved For Release 2001/08/07 : CIA-RDP78-04718A000500090017-1

Approved For Release 2001/08/07 : CIA-RDP78-04718A000500090017-1