MEMORANDUM FOR: Assistant Director for Special Operations

SUBJECT: Communications

REFERENCE: Memo from Chief, Communications Division, OSO, to AFSC on above subject, dated 1 March 1949, enclosing:
 (1) Memo to Radio Network
 (2) Table showing status of communications personnel as of 1 March 1949
 (3) Memo re communications support for future OSO Program
 (4) Memo re allocation of supply positions

25X1A

1. On 1 March 1949 the reference was left with me at a conference with the Acting Assistant Director for and his Communications and Deputy Communications Officers.

25X1A

2. The problems of personnel procurement and training space have been fairly well solved. Space is being prepared at the and procurement of personnel expedited through setting of attainable standards, establishment of varied training programs, and authorization for provisional clearance for an adequate number of trainees to meet eventual overseas requirements.

25X1A

25X1A

3. The overseas program proposed in reference (3) is approved for implementation to the extent possible within your capabilities and project plans. This does not constitute approval for the recommended increase in departmental personnel.

25X1A

4. Closing of the network is not desired. It should be at least maintained on a stand-by basis, and appropriately manned when trained personnel can be made available.

5. a. Reference (2) indicates the following current status of communications personnel:

(1) Departmental:

- * Authorization
- On duty
- In process
- Vacancies

(10 vacancies blocked by [Redacted] action included in the 21 total)

25X1A

25X9

b. [Redacted] additional positions are listed in reference (3) as being required for overseas projects. This is not consistent with the fact that 10 of the 21 currently authorized vacancies are blocked for procurement purposes. It is assumed that these 10 positions will immediately be released for procurement purposes concurrently with or prior to submission of personnel requisitions for the additional [Redacted] overseas positions for expansion purposes.

25X9

c. (1) It is noted that approximately [Redacted] of your currently authorized departmental communications personnel positions are vacant, and that candidates are not yet in process for [Redacted] of such positions.

25X1A

25X1A

(2) Authorization has already been given (to augment training staff) for 14 of the additional [Redacted] positions requested in references (3) and (4) for departmental needs, leaving [Redacted] of the requested [Redacted] new departmental positions not authorized, and increasing the number of vacancies in your authorized departmental positions from [Redacted]

(3) It is not considered sound to authorize an additional [Redacted] positions until the excessive number of existing vacancies is at least nearly filled and we can determine more definitely the load we can carry with currently authorized personnel actually on duty. However, the Management Officer has been instructed to reexamine your departmental requirements for communications personnel and make recommendations to the Executive based on his findings. No further action will be taken on departmental increases pending receipt of these recommendations.
