Dear Keg:

I regret I was on leave when your retirement from the Army became a reality and terminated your tour of duty with this Agency.

Since I was unable to do so in person, I would like to have this letter say we will miss you, and express my sincere appreciation for the splendid job you have done for the Agency, and in particular, for the Logistics Office. Your outstanding logistical background, mature judgement, and qualities of leadership were most valuable to that office, especially during its period of greatest growth and assumption of many new and varied responsibilities.

May I express the wish that you find happiness and contentment in your new way of life and enjoy it to the utmost.

Sincerely,

131
