THE CIA CAREER COUNCIL AND THE CAREER SERVICES
CAREER DEVELOPMENT OF JUNIOR PERSONNEL

25X1A

Rescission: [REDACTED] dated 23 May 1955

1. GENERAL

- a. CIA has established a program for the Career Development of Junior Personnel in order that there shall be continuously available a reservoir of individuals extensively and intensively acquainted with Agency activities.
- b. The program is designed to provide for the systematic indoctrination and development, through planned assignment of approximately two years' duration, of those junior employees who have been identified as possessing the capacity and potential to profit from such development.
- c. Implementation of the program will be accomplished by utilization of Junior Career Development positions which are administered by the Office of Personnel. Since only a limited number of these positions will be available and the program is highly selective, relatively few applicants can be chosen.
- d. Application forms can be obtained from either the Office of Personnel or the Office of Training.

2. RESPONSIBILITY

- a. Responsibility for this program is vested in the Director of Personnel, the Director of Training, and the Head of the Career Service having jurisdiction over the individual under consideration as evidenced by his service designation.
- b. Selection of participants for the program and review of their progress will be made by the Committee for Career Development of Junior Personnel composed of the Director of Personnel, Chairman; the Director of Training; and the Head of the Career Service having jurisdiction over the individual under consideration as evidenced by his service designation.

3. ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

To be considered for entrance into the program an individual must:

- a. Have staff-employee status.
- b. Be between the ages of 25 and 34, inclusive.
- c. Occupy a position at a grade between GS-7 and GS-12, inclusive.
- d. Have at least two years' prior CIA service, preferably three.
- e. Have preferably completed a training course in basic intelligence, such as BOC(DD/I) or BOC(DD/P).
- f. Possess a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university or its equivalent in terms of either satisfactory Agency experience or a combination of formal education and such experience.
- g. Agree to serve the Agency anywhere and at anytime and for any kind of duty as determined by the needs of the Agency, full consideration being given to particular capabilities, interests, and personal circumstances.

4. PROCEDURE

a. APPLICATION AND NOMINATION

- (1) Heads of Career Services shall nominate especially qualified individuals for the program by requesting them to submit applications. In addition, any staff employee who meets the eligibility criteria may initiate his own application for entrance in the program.
- (2) Each applicant will prepare a proposed Career Development Plan as an integral part of his application. In appropriate cases, the individual's immediate supervisor will actively assist in the preparation of the plan. This plan does not need prior concurrence of those offices in which it is expected the individual will be detailed during his participation in the program although prior coordination would be helpful. The Committee for Career Development of Junior Personnel will be responsible for obtaining the necessary concurrences.

- (3) Each application will be forwarded through official channels to the Head of the appropriate Career Service who will append his comments and recommendations to the application. If the applicant is officially assigned to one operating office and has the service designation of another, the appropriate Operating Official or his designee will also append his comments and recommendations. Operating Officials include: Chiefs of Senior Staffs and Area Divisions under jurisdiction of the Deputy Director (Plans); Assistant Directors under jurisdiction of the Deputy Director (Intelligence); and Chiefs of Staffs, the Comptroller, the General Counsel, and Directors of Offices under jurisdiction of the Deputy Director (Support).
- (4) The application will be forwarded by the Head of the Career Service concerned to the Director of Personnel whether the comments and recommendations are affirmative or negative.

b. SELECTION AND REVIEW

- (1) The Committee will select participants from among those whose applications are received by the Director of Personnel.
- (2) The Committee will make its review and base its selection on the applicant's overall suitability for the program as determined by the following:
  - (a) Possession of basic eligibility qualifications.
  - (b) Evaluation of data in applicant's Official Personnel Folder, which must contain a current Fitness Report.
  - (c) Personal interview which will include a discussion of the applicant's proposed Career Development Plan.
  - (d) Training evaluations.
  - (e) Appraisal by the Assessment and Evaluation Staff of the Office of Training when requested by the Committee.
  - (f) Any special reports which the Committee may request from the Director of Security or Chief, Medical Staff.

c. ADMINISTRATION

- (1) After selection, the individual will transfer without change of service designation to a JCD position and will remain under
