MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director (Intelligence)

ATTENTION : Deputy Assistant Director for Operations

SUBJECT : Request for Vending Machines for the Foreign Broadcast Information Division, East Coast Bureau

REFERENCE : Memorandum from Deputy Assistant Director for Operations to DD/S dtd 5 July 1955, same subject

1. In accordance with your request dated 5 July 1955, approval is granted for the employee group at the Foreign Broadcast Information Division, East Coast Bureau, to purchase and install on Government property one cigarette vending machine and one candy vending machine.

2. No official funds may be utilized in the purchase, installation, maintenance, or filling of the machines. Space, electricity, and area cleaning services may be provided by the East Coast Bureau when no additional cost will accrue to the Government. Any profits derived from such vending machines should be used for the benefit of the employee group as a whole and may not be utilized in any manner contrary to the best interests of the Agency and the security of the Bureau. Quarterly reports should be rendered to the Comptroller for review. The Office of the Comptroller shall advise you as to form and content of these reports.
