1. I have considered carefully the case of [Redacted] as reported in references (a) and (b) attached hereto. I am not satisfied that the proper procedures have been followed in this case nor with the adequacy of the investigation upon which the Acting Director of Personnel bases his recommendation for termination pursuant to the authority contained in Section 102(c) of the National Security Act of 1947 as amended.

2. Therefore, you are directed to make a thorough supplementary investigation of the case at the earliest practicable date, coordinating with all appropriate offices and individuals of the Agency and calling such additional witnesses as may be necessary to fully develop the evidence, and to make your recommendations to me as to the appropriate action to be taken.
