1. On 7 June 1960, [REDACTED] visited [REDACTED] and told me that his neighbor, Mr. [REDACTED] felt much better about the "security" of the United States after visiting this Station. Mr. [REDACTED] added that it was the last time he would visit any place with a woman, specially one who asked so many G-- D--- dumb questions. Jerry added that Mr. [REDACTED] had written a very nice "thank-you" note to Mr. Dulles.

2. I addressed the JCS group, they are thirty-one strong, and have given us an initial impression of being a very receptive group. In order to avoid some of the pitfalls of our presentation last year, we reviewed the schedule prepared for this group well in advance. I have made certain that the most indicated instructor is used in each instance. This means that the OC, [REDACTED], and CFA branches are involved in this presentation. You will receive a detailed report on this running.

3. [REDACTED] arrived at the gate on Tuesday, 7 June, and will occupy Capt. [REDACTED] house for some days while the Captain and his family take leave. Chuck is "jet-propelled" after his college stint - claims it would have cost $50,000.00, to buy the education he has received. His morale is high. He will obviously be able to seek his next assignment with more discernment and a better appreciation of what his contribution can be.

4. [REDACTED] spent June 6 and 7, with us and has an appreciation of our problem. In a few days, he will prepare his recommendation. My aim is a simple coordinated system of correspondence flow and filing that will not require major overhauling the day our offices are physically joined.

5. According to latest reports from [REDACTED] the visit [REDACTED] is now coordinated for 16 June. Presumably, [REDACTED] will arrive [REDACTED] sometime on the afternoon of the 16th, and perhaps [REDACTED] around 2200 hours the same evening. At the time of his initial request, I advised [REDACTED] to work out arrangements with your Office.

I explained that I did not have the authority to approve such visits; for this reason, on each occasion that he has called me, I have insisted that he call your Office. It seems that he has now gotten the idea. The last time he called me, on 3 June, he made some mention of the possibility of bringing some Marine Corps General along. I did not get the General's name, as I told him again that he would have to clear with Headquarters. At any rate, I imagine that [redacted] may have this information. With your approval, it is our intention to show these visitors three things:
