[REDACTED] were present at the Headquarters Building last Sunday to provide standby medical support for the helicopter and equipment operations.

3. OMS is providing emergency medical coverage for the Auditorium briefings of the Presidential Classroom for Young Americans. This involves some 250 high school students from various parts of the country and is held on Tuesday evenings from 19 February to 9 April 1974.

4. As a follow-up of an item reported in our last weekly report, the Director of Security approved the Research/Assessment Program proposed by the Psychological Services Staff concerning professional careerists of the Security Career Service. This program is now in the data collection stage. Analysis of this data is designed to provide a norm of Security careerists primarily in terms of the Professional Test Battery variables.

5. OMS officials met on 25 February and will meet again on 4 March with officials of the Office of Joint Computer Support concerning OJCS support for OMS current and future requirements.
