A review has been made of the Standardized Regulations, Section 272, with current amendments and I can find no provision for or against payment of the attached claims. Section 271.1g defines "Home Study Course" which would appear to indicate approval of Extension Courses (no mention of concurrence of daily attendance course).

There would be no monetary limitation on approval of both claims (if otherwise correct) since the claims of Mrs. [REDACTED] total $258.37 and the Allowance is $350.00; and Mr. [REDACTED] is requesting $198.31 against the Allowance of $270.00.

It is requested that General Counsel obtain an informal ruling from GAO on this matter. I attempted to obtain information from my contact, via phone, and I was advised that I should submit a written request for a decision.

I checked with O&L Branch of Finance Division and was informed that they had never paid for two semesters in one.
