MEMO FOR: The Record

SUBJECT : Meeting with [REDACTED] on 26 January 1962

25X1A9a

I met with [REDACTED] today to discuss [REDACTED] publications and how to improve distribution to OTR of items in which we would have interest. George was as cooperative as I could want. He explained that there are three types of papers of interest put out by [REDACTED]

25X1A9a 1. Publications normally distributed outside DDP. One copy of each of these has been routed to OTR via Mrs. [REDACTED] of OCR (ext. 7388) at Langley. Mrs. [REDACTED] in turn sends the copy to 2022 R&S (OTR Library). There were about 25 such items in 1961. George has wondered for some time why this round-about routing was necessary, and only continued it because Mrs. [REDACTED] wanted it handled this way. (She also routes a copy to the DDI and to other units in the Intelligence Community.) From now on he will send the copy for OTR directly to us at TAS. [REDACTED] is currently working on the fourth draft of an analysis of the effects of the 22th Party Congress, which George believes will eventually be issued as this type of publication.

2. Operational briefs in the Communist Party Penetration Program series. The last item to appear in this series was #6 in March 1959. George sends about 30 copies of these to C/SIC for use in various SIC courses. [REDACTED] is currently working on a paper, on thought patterns of communists, which will eventually appear in this series. These items are sent to field stations, but no copies go to non-DDP units except for those sent SIC. George believes that any wider distribution of this type publication inside OTR would normally be subject to a caveat limiting its use with non-DDP students.

3. Functional research memos to the desks, mostly available for passing to certain liaison services. They take up a certain aspect of the international movement or a specific Communist Party, and are not considered "finished" studies. These are not sent to OTR but some of them might be of interest.

George said that, in addition to the above, [REDACTED] wrote between 400-500 preliminary working or guidance papers for the desks during 1961. These are operational in nature (briefing and debriefing guides for individual agents, etc.) and are therefore tightly controlled.

We then discussed the best method of keeping OTR abreast of new [redacted] items and I mentioned the annotated bibliography which George had issued in 1955 of all [redacted] publications up to that date. George showed me a supplementary listing of all "widely-disseminated [redacted] research papers and operational aids" from 1955 to June 1961. The list runs 25 legal-sized pages, and lists 210 items. George intends to have this annotated and eventually reproduced and distributed in limited fashion. Meantime we are welcome to consult it in his office. George said we are welcome to check through the back material in his office and discuss with him any further distribution desired by OTR. He also showed me a six-page paper, "Communist and Marxist Parties of Latin America," January 1961, which lists the different names of each party and gives its legal or illegal status, together with the numbers of members and sympathizers for each. I brought back nine copies (the number of copies George happened to have in hand). When time permits and we have a little better idea of what [redacted] and Headquarters Training might want on communism, I could go back and survey the 1961 production in some detail.

As of now, George will route one copy of each [redacted] paper which he feels might be of interest to OTR, and which may be seen outside DDP, to TAS/OTR for retention or destruction, with a statement of any caveats imposed by [redacted]. We can then ask for extra copies from him by phone. George expects there will be about five or six such papers per month.

In answer to the question of what other DDP producers might be checked by OTR in our current survey, he mentioned [redacted] of [redacted]. We are, of course, already in touch with all of them.
