TO : Director of Training
THRU : Chief, Operations School, OTR

DATE: 20 June 1962

FROM : Chief, Training Assistance Staff, Operations School

SUBJECT: Weekly Activity Report #24
14 - 20 June 1962

A. SIGNIFICANT ITEMS:

None to report.

B. OTHER ITEMS:

1. MERCHANTS OF DEATH:

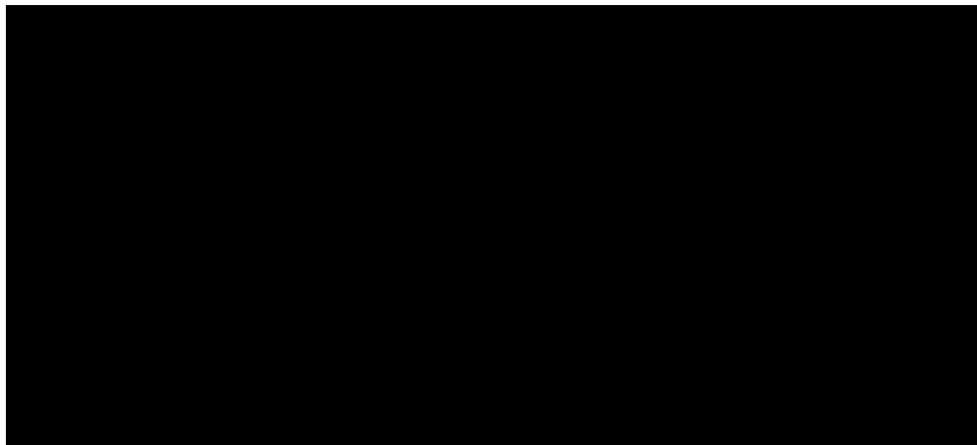

25X1A9a

25X1A9a

[REDACTED] has been enlisted to help us gather materials on successful and unsuccessful assassination attempts for [REDACTED]. Dee has attacked this with her usual enthusiasm, but we have warned her that George's time limits preclude his examining material peripheral to the main issue -- how it was done. Eva has had to have her nose pried out of one book which, though perhaps not especially helpful to George, is suitably bloody for her guerrilla-whetted tastes.

2. COOPERATION IN LATIN AMERICA:

25X1C10b

3. STATIC DISPLAY:

When it turned out that our material was edged out of last Thursday's show for lack of space, Eva used the excuse to collect it from the display room as a means of seeing the final lay-out. The impressive array gave her an idea which was duly relayed to [REDACTED] -- that our material would fit most logically into the display as adjuncts to the hardware [REDACTED] parachutes, etc. Doug was to convey this suggestion to [REDACTED]. To date we have heard no more so we assume that after last Thursday's performance everybody is reclining exhausted on his laurels for the nonce.

4. CA WRITES AGAIN:

25X1A8

On 14 June we were visited by Miss [REDACTED] of 25X1A9a CA [REDACTED] who had been assigned to gather background material for a paper to be written by one of her colleagues. It had not been made clear to her (or at least she wasn't able to make it clear to us) precisely what was to be covered. The general purport seemed to be the Communist modus operandi in penetrating and eventually taking over a country. We lent her four items (one overt, one an FI report, and even a CA study), with the hope that if they were not of ultimate use they might at least offer her a clue for her further collection efforts.

5. HELP TO [REDACTED]

25X1A9a

[REDACTED] to see us on 15 June, to request training material for a Spanish-speaking security service-type trainee. We started him off with the Spanish Tradecraft Guide and Glossary, and are in the process of having reproduced some other items of which we had only single copies. The girls have typed three of them on ditto so that we will not again run out of copies, since these items seem to be in demand for a number of projects.

6. FI OPERATIONAL STUDIES:

25X1A9a

[REDACTED] of the FI Staff, who is in charge of writing the FI studies replacing the old Operational Aids, has asked our help in assembling background material for a study he is about to embark on concerning agent handling. We have lent him a number of papers and have made available [REDACTED] lesson plans for his study here in the office. Jerry being a man of ability and serious purpose as well as an old friend, we always try to do our best for him -- particularly since he is always grateful and always lets us have his worth-while end products.

SECRET7. SPECIAL FORCES, FORT BRAGG:

25X1A9a

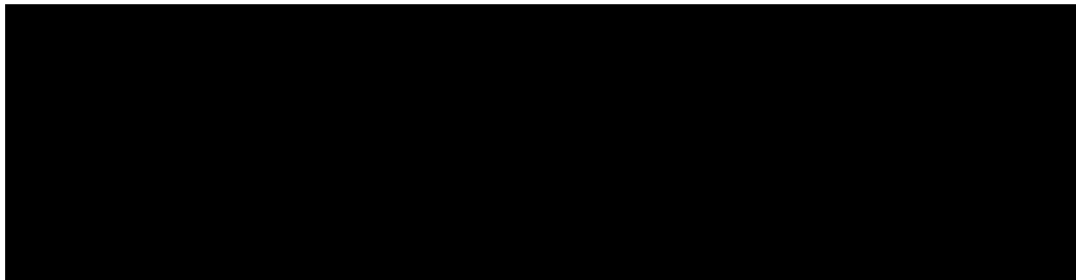

Last week [REDACTED] called me concerning an informal request from Fort Bragg for an Agency lecturer to talk to a group of U.S. and "Allied" officers on Communist internal security. According to Lou, the lecture is now scheduled for 1 August. It was clear that Lou was most anxious that the individual chosen be from OTR, so I suggested he direct a memorandum to the DTR. I assured him that it would receive sympathetic consideration, although [REDACTED] instructors are in great demand. I suggested he get his request in as soon as possible. On Monday Lou brought a draft of his memo down for comments. During the conversation he said Fort Bragg planned to send a formal, written invitation and I said this too should be directed to the DTR. Lou thinks Fort Bragg will probably submit a request for a lecturer in the field of counter-insurgency for this same program and he plans to follow the same procedures as in the other request. I suggested that when his memorandum is ready, he might wish to take it to the DTR or the DDTR personally at which time he could discuss Fort Bragg's requirements in more detail.

Incidentally, Lou's contacts have not involved all give and no get. His latest contribution to our lore, a recherche document entitled "Background Information on Natural Animal Odorants and Artificial Musks," has, appropriately, gone to the dogs [REDACTED]

9. [REDACTED] VISIT:

We had a chance to talk at some length with Carl during his TDY visit on his activities in the Vietnamese hinterland. Carl's refreshingly realistic appraisal of the operational situation in that troubled land would have made an excellent lecture in the recent Counter-Insurgency Course if he had been available at the time. level echelons, is exemplified by Carl's problems in conducting training for a group composed of tribal elements speaking nine different dialects. Carl is the only Agency man in his area, his staff being composed of [redacted] personnel. He reports that they are doing a fine job and present no problems of professional jealousy.

10. WHY WE LIKE OUR WORK DEPT.:

The Chief of Station, [redacted] not only has contributed a rare item with a dispatch acknowledging receipt of training materials, but has embellished it with comments -- to the effect that the selection is very comprehensive and deemed to be of considerable value in his efforts to train the local intelligence service.
