MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Support

SUBJECT : Weekly Report of the Office of Training
1 December 1966

1. Spaces at Naval War College

Captain (FNU) Creamer, BUPERS, when contacted about a second space at the Naval War College, stated that BUPERS already had some indication of the Agency's interest from the College. He suggested that next fall's nominees include an alternate with the hope that the alternate will be admitted in addition to our primary nominee. As of now we have no firm commitment on an additional space.

2. NATO Defense College

25X1A At our request [REDACTED] the Agency's representative to CINCLANT, discussed the subject of the NATO Defense College with appropriate staff officers. He advised that 25 per cent of each class are selected civilians at the equivalent grade of colonel who may serve in key NATO posts. [REDACTED] suggested that we explore the NATO College further with Admiral Ward, U.S. delegate to the NATO Military Committee in the Pentagon. We have requested OCR/Liaison to make initial inquiries to Admiral Ward.

3. Computer Institute

25X1A

██████████ has been nominated to the Department of Defense Computer Institute for the 12 December Senior Executive Course. Harry

██████████ cancellation has left the January space open.

4. Intelligence Review Course

Forty students are enrolled in the Intelligence Review Course which began on 28 November. The Agency experience of the group averages 12 years and the grade average is GS-13. Nineteen of the students are from the DDI area, five from the DDS&T, six from the DDP, <sup>nine from the D.D/S</sup> and one from the DCI complex. We were disappointed that the speech by C/TSD was cancelled by ██████████ -- on need-to-know grounds.

25X1A

██████████ Course for CTs, a two-week Headquarters Desk Course for CTs, a three-week Intelligence for Operations Course for non-case officer CTs, a one-week PPB Course, a three-day ADP Orientation, a two-week Program Assisted Instruction Course, and a Senior Operations Seminar. Much of the instruction in these courses will be provided by non-OTR personnel. However most will require the use of some OTR resources. Careful attention is being given to ensure that these new courses will meet meaningful Agency requirements and will not require significant increases in OTR resources. Concurrently, a review is under way toward the elimination of obsolete or low priority training activities to provide internally whatever resource increase might be necessary.

6. Non-Agency Briefings

During this reporting period these non-Agency briefings were given:

- a) 840 midshipmen at the US Naval Academy on "Communist Tactics in the Developing Countries,"
- b) 54 Junior FSOs at the State Department on "The Role of CIA in the Intelligence Community" and "The Current Status of the Communist Movement,"
- c) Five Senior Foreign Officers at Holabird on "Communism in Western Europe,"
- d) 212 officers at the US Army War College on "The Communist Threat in Developing Countries,"
- e) 50 AID personnel being prepared for overseas assignment,
- f) 45 members of the combined military reserve group at NSA,
- g) 12 business executives of the Business Council for International Understanding at American University on "The Role of Intelligence in Support of US National Security Policy,"
- h) 70 students in the DIS Strategic Intelligence Course on the US national security structure and on the missions and functions of CIA.
