

Suggestion for Hull Committee Report

The training film on Security will be completed about the end of April. It will be used for orientation of new employees and will be shown in certain training courses. The script for a film titled "Introduction to Intelligence" has been submitted to the DD/I in rough form for review and comment. This film will be used in training courses relating to the activities of the various components of the DD/I. Production should begin in June of this year.
