NARRATIVE REPORT

INTERIM

FINAL

The deliverable item under this contract, the "Final Study and Test Plan," has been received and accepted.

This project was assigned to the present technical representative at about the same time that the final report was received. Comments on the contractor's performance can be based only on the content of the report. The report appears to have been well planned at its origin and is well-written and informative. As a result of this report it is expected that we will continue on to a "Phase B" with the same contract.
