We have received a letter from Mr. [redacted] concerning most of the questions. However, our request for the [redacted] output and input amplifiers has been referred to [redacted] who is the only person authorized to release this information.

In order that we not broaden our contacts in the [redacted] division, we would appreciate it if you would request the schematics for us. These would be useful to us immediately and we are anxious to have them.

The exact locations of the air and vacuum lines are awaiting the complete design of the cabinet. This will be ready soon and I will send drawings.

The progress report will be along shortly. Also, would it be possible for you to send me your latest telephone number?

Sincerely,
