It is my understanding that you are not an employee of the Government and that you are presently engaged as a consultant for other organizations which may be competitors of [redacted]

While [redacted] desires to offer its cooperation to facilitate your performance of those duties which may be assigned to you, you must understand that such cooperation poses a risk to [redacted]. For this reason, we ask you to sign and return a copy of this letter signifying your acceptance of the terms and conditions which follow:

25X1A

You agree to accept any information which you may obtain at the [redacted] plant, or as a result of your association with [redacted] or pertaining to the work performed by [redacted] for the said Government agency, in confidence and recognize that [redacted] has proprietary right in such information.

You agree that you will neither duplicate nor reproduce documents containing such information, and that you will not disclose such information to third parties.

After the completion of your assigned duties, you will deliver all documents and records pertaining to said duties to the Government or return the documents and records to [redacted]

You further agree that should any information as to [redacted] activities become known to third parties during the period of your access to [redacted] facilities, or for one year thereafter, it may be presumed that you had access to such information.

You should understand that permitting one who is, in effect, a competitor to enter one's plant is a highly unusual procedure. Thus, although measures may be taken by [redacted] to restrict your access to matters within the scope of the work directly assigned to you, in practice it is virtually impossible to so limit your access, especially in view of the fact that you enjoy the friendship and high regard of so many [redacted] employees.

Should you elect to execute the present agreement, we hope that your association with [redacted] will be mutually beneficial.

Your very truly,
