1. The [Redacted] day was the rate established in the contract between [Redacted] and [Redacted]. Since the original proposal from [Redacted] included the use of [Redacted] as a consultant, I presume that his fee is satisfactory with the Agency.

2. We probably should not authorize 63 days utilization of Dr. [Redacted] at this stage in the contract. I understand that [Redacted] has only been used for less than 20 days to date, Also, [Redacted] only proposes to utilize his services for an additional four or five days. How about authorizing [Redacted] to use [Redacted] a maximum of 25 days?
