

Ed.

These units were discussed in the planning stages of [redacted] and were ^{STAT} outlined for security reasons for classified data. I realize that the data you would transmit would be unclassified but plans are being worked out to use the teletype units to do this job and eventually, classified info would be involved.

I would like to see if you could get common type security to change their decision.

JK

Declass Review by NGA.