Dear [Redacted]

STAT

It's always a pleasure hearing from you, although I was sorry to learn of your wife's illness. My best wishes to her for a rapid recovery.

I'm sorry that you were not able to join our organization, but under the circumstances, I agree with you that a move under those conditions would be a definite hardship.

As yet, [Redacted] I have not had any inquiry from the Civil Service Commission regarding you - I assume of course that you gave me as a reference - but as soon as inquiry is made, you may be certain that I will give you a wholehearted endorsement. If you feel that a "to whom it may concern" letter would serve any purpose, I will send you one to use as you see fit.

STAT

Please let me know how you make out on this appointment and let me know if there is anything I can do to help.

Sincerely,

Art
