18. [Redacted] HEARING Called Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, and informed him of the Director's acceptance of the request by the House Select Committee on Narcotics Abuse and Control to appear during the week of 20-24 September in executive session on the Agency's programs to support law enforcement agencies engaged in controlling narcotics trafficking. Slatinshek said we should be careful not to disclose operational matters. He is aware of the complaints that DEA is not effective and hopes we don't get involved in that squabble. Slatinshek said the CIARDS bill, H. R. 13615, will not come up on the House floor until next week.

4. ([redacted]) LEGISLATION Met with Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, and discussed Representative Paul Findley's (R., Ill.) proposed amendment to knock out the "1% kicker" when the CIARDS bill, H. R. 13615, is taken up on the floor next week. Slatinshek asked that I check with Mr. Findley to discuss this further since the recently enacted provision in the Defense Authorization for FY 1977 ties this change to any change in the Civil Service retirement system. He offered to be of assistance should a problem develop.

13. [REDACTED] LEGISLATION Received a call from Bob Haney, in the office of Representative Dominick V. Daniels (D., N. J.). Haney had inquired of Bill Hogan's office, House Armed Services Committee staff, as to whether any amendments to the CIARDS bill, H. R. 13615, were to be introduced and was referred to me by Mr. Hogan's secretary. I told Haney that Representative Paul Findley's (R., Ill.) office had called yesterday advising that Mr. Findley will introduce a floor amendment to knock out the "1% kicker" in the cost-of-living formula. I discussed with Haney the recently enacted legislation in the Defense Authorization bill for FY 1977 and the Foreign Service Retirement Act amendments tying the dropping of this provision in retirement programs to the Civil Service retirement system and pointed out the inequity if the Agency were to be singled out. I further explained to Haney that Mr. Findley's amendment could create serious problems for the Agency since two-thirds of our employees are under Civil Service retirement and would not be affected. Haney expressed support for our position but said he could not speak for Mr. Daniels, however, he will pass this information on and will get back to me if he wanted anything further.
