1. [redacted] INTELLIGENCE BRIEFING I accompanied [redacted] OCI, to a briefing of Mike Van Dusen and George Berdes, on the staff of the House International Relations Committee, and Richard Preece of the Library of Congress. The subject was a political and military overview of countries in the Arabian peninsula and Ethiopia. They requested the opportunity to meet with some of our people during a trip planned beginning 16 October to the above mentioned countries. Since I had previously cleared this with [redacted] I told them I would work something out.

2. [redacted] LIAISON Ben Marshall, Security Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, called to ask whether Mark Gitenstein, who recently rejoined the Select Committee staff, could participate in the general briefings being given to the Committee staff over the next few days. Gitenstein had been with the Committee in the past, worked for ACLU for 2 to 3 months and is now back with the Committee again. After discussing the matter with [redacted] and learning that the FBI report for his time with ACLU had just come into the Committee staff, I called Marshall back and told him that Gitenstein would be welcome to attend the briefings.

20. [REDACTED] LIAISON Marian Czarnecki, Chief of Staff, House International Relations Committee, called saying he would be leaving the Committee at the end of the month and would be trying his hand at international banking. Czarnecki said Jack Brady, also of the Committee staff, would replace him as Chief of Staff and asked that we accord him the same arrangement made for him for access to the NID. I said we would.

21. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Sam Hoskinson, NSC Staff, and discussed with him Executive Order 10450, "Suitability Requirements for Government Employment." Hoskinson said he was not familiar with this Order and that normally matters such as this go through their office as the last stage. I told Hoskinson that we had problems with this Order as such and would be meeting with the Director tomorrow and I was going to suggest that the Director write a letter to General Brent Scowcroft. Hoskinson thought this was a good idea.

22. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called the office of Senator John Culver (D., Iowa) to request a copy of a press statement Senator Culver had made on the behalf of [REDACTED] OPR. The Senator's receptionist agreed to send it out right away.

23. [REDACTED] LIAISON Received a call from Spencer Davis, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff Press Secretary, who informed me that the Committee had received a number of inquiries regarding the New York Times story on CIA's use of Nazi war criminals and requested a report on the allegations. I told him one was being prepared.

24. [REDACTED] LIAISON Spoke with Tom Connaughton, Senator Birch Bayh's (D., Ind.) designee on the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, about the referral of a patented device invented by one of Senator Bayh's constituents. I informed Connaughton that Agency personnel were seeking a copy of the patent for further study before we respond to the inventor, [REDACTED] Connaughton asked that we respond to the inventor's lawyer rather than [REDACTED] directly and inform Connaughton when we have done so.

25X1 19. [REDACTED] LIAISON I called Bob Dockery, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, and told him, in response to his inquiry, that the Agency had made no public comment on Castro's statement and referred him to Secretary of State Kissinger's recent public statement on the matter. He requested a briefing on whatever we could release to him for use by members of the committee. Specifically, he was interested in the background of the people mentioned in Castro's statement.
