|  |  | CONFIDENTIAL  |
|--|--|---|
| Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Internal Security, furnished the following information: Former Attorney General John Mitchell's son, Jay, is now working on the staff of the Subcommittee.  10. HEARINGS-ANGOLA Senator Dick Clark (D., Iowa), called to advise that he planned to have a press conference today to announce hearings on Southern Africa, particularly Angola, by his Subcommittee on African Affairs. Secretary of State, Henry A. Kissinger, Secretary of Defense, Donald H. Rumsfeld and Director of Central Intelligence, William E. Colby will be asked to appear. The hearings are tentatively scheduled for 19-23 January. Kissinger will be the lead-off witness. The Director's office has been notified.  11. LIAISON I took a call from Joseph Honan, Academic Director (232-7062) of the Washington Center for Learning Alternatives. Honan said he was responsible for organizing weekly seminar for 35 college students in the area who are interning with the Executive and Legislative Branches of the Government. He asked if the Agency would be interested in speaking to this group to present its views of the Agency agains the backdrop of current publicity. I said I would call back or have someone else call. I passed this lead on to and she said she would call Honan.  12. BRIEFINGS INTEL I spoke with Jim Cline, of the House Judiciary Committee staff about his earlier request for a briefi on CPEC for some of the staffers on the Committee. He said he was not certain what the interest was on the part of the staffers, and he would get |  |   |
| HEARINGS-ANGOLA Senator Dick Clark (D., Iowa), called to advise that he planned to have a press conference today to announce hearings on Southern Africa, particularly Angola, by his Subcommittee on African Affairs. Secretary of State, Henry A. Kissinger, Secretary of Defense, Donald H. Rumsfeld and Director of Central Intelligence, William E. Colby will be asked to appear. The hearings are tentatively scheduled for 19-23 January. Kissinger will be the lead-off witness. The Director's office has been notified.  11. LIAISON I took a call from Joseph Honan, Academic Director (232-7062) of the Washington Center for Learning Alternatives. Honan said he was responsible for organizing weekly seminar for 35 college students in the area who are interning with the Executive and Legislative Branches of the Government. He asked if the Agency would be interested in speaking to this group to present its views of the Agency agains the backdrop of current publicity. I said I would call back or have someone else call. I passed this lead on to and she said she would call Honan.  12. BRIEFINGS INTEL I spoke with Jim Cline, of the House Judiciary Committee staff about his earlier request for a briefi on CPEC for some of the staffers on the Committee. He said he was not certain what the interest was on the part of the staffers, and he would get  | inf  | nate Judiciary Subcommittee on Internal Security, furnished the following formation: Former Attorney General John Mitchell's son, Jay, is now   |
| (D., Iowa), called to advise that he planned to have a press conference today to announce hearings on Southern Africa, particularly Angola, by his Subcommittee on African Affairs. Secretary of State, Henry A. Kissinger, Secretary of Defense, Donald H. Rumsfeld and Director of Central Intelligence, William E. Colby will be asked to appear. The hearings are tentatively scheduled for 19-23 January. Kissinger will be the lead-off witness. The Director's office has been notified.  11. LIAISON I took a call from Joseph Honan, Academic Director (232-7062) of the Washington Center for Learning Alternatives. Honan said he was responsible for organizing weekly seminar for 35 college students in the area who are interning with the Executive and Legislative Branches of the Government. He asked if the Agency would be interested in speaking to this group to present its views of the Agency agains the backdrop of current publicity. I said I would call back or have someone else call. I passed this lead on to and she said she would call Honan.  12. BRIEFINGS INTEL I spoke with Jim Cline, of the House Judiciary Committee staff about his earlier request for a briefi on OPEC for some of the staffers on the Committee. He said he was not certain what the interest was on the part of the staffers, and he would get   | wc   | rking on the staff of the Subcommittee.   |
| Academic Director (232-7062) of the Washington Center for Learning Alternatives. Honan said he was responsible for organizing weekly seminar for 35 college students in the area who are interning with the Executive and Legislative Branches of the Government. He asked if the Agency would be interested in speaking to this group to present its views of the Agency agains the backdrop of current publicity. I said I would call back or have someone else call. I passed this lead on to and she said she would call Honan.  BRIEFINGS INTEL I spoke with Jim Cline, of the House Judiciary Committee staff about his earlier request for a briefi on OPEC for some of the staffers on the Committee. He said he was not certain what the interest was on the part of the staffers, and he would get   | tocoSeInte   | ., Iowa), called to advise that he planned to have a press conference today announce hearings on Southern Africa, particularly Angola, by his Submittee on African Affairs. Secretary of State, Henry A. Kissinger, cretary of Defense, Donald H. Rumsfeld and Director of Central telligence, William E. Colby will be asked to appear. The hearings are intatively scheduled for 19-23 January. Kissinger will be the lead-off  |
| of the House Judiciary Committee staff about his earlier request for a briefion OPEC for some of the staffers on the Committee. He said he was notcertain what the interest was on the part of the staffers, and he would get  |  | 11. LIAISON I took a call from Joseph Honan,  |
|  | AlfoLeinthel   | ternatives. Honan said he was responsible for organizing weekly seminars of the 35 college students in the area who are interning with the Executive and egislative Branches of the Government. He asked if the Agency would be terested in speaking to this group to present its views of the Agency against the backdrop of current publicity. I said I would call back or have someone se call. I passed this lead on to of the IC Staff, for action   |
|  | All for Learn of or contract of the contract o | ternatives. Honan said he was responsible for organizing weekly seminars or 35 college students in the area who are interning with the Executive and egislative Branches of the Government. He asked if the Agency would be terested in speaking to this group to present its views of the Agency against the backdrop of current publicity. I said I would call back or have someone see call. I passed this lead on to a dishe said she would call Honan.  BRIEFINGS INTEL I spoke with Jim Cline, the House Judiciary Committee staff about his earlier request for a briefing OPEC for some of the staffers on the Committee. He said he was not extain what the interest was on the part of the staffers, and he would get |

Approved For Release 2004/12/20 : CIA-RDP78M02660R000300070027-0

Next 8 Page(s) In Document Exempt