An Arys-type warhead storage bunker has been constructed at the Radviliskis Explosives Storage Depot, USSR; the presence of this bunker adjacent to 3 previously constructed arch-roofed, earth-covered buildings confirms this site as a support facility for tactical surface-to-surface missiles (SSM). A support building and access roads have also been constructed.

25X1D

When the site was last seen in [redacted] the bunker was not present, although a clearing had been prepared for its construction. The bunker is identical to the bunkers at the Arys Tactical SSM Support Facility, USSR,
