TAI YUAN IRON AND STEEL PLANTS
TAI YUAN, CHINA

The Tai Yuan Iron and Steel Plant is located on the north edge of the city of Tai Yuan at 37 56N - 112 32E.

Production facilities in this complex include: two by-products coke installations, the largest has one battery of coke ovens complete and one under construction; five blast furnaces (one large, two medium and two small); one open hearth furnace building, two side-blown converter shops and various milling buildings.

The level of activity as observed on [redacted] [redacted] was minimal. The only facilities emitting smoke were the two coke oven installations, the open hearth building and the steam/power plant. Very little rail traffic was observed throughout the complex. No significant change in the facilities was detected since [redacted]
