NOTE FOR: DDA

Jack:

As you know, we have tentatively scheduled an EAG session covering the function of CIA's role as a [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. In connection with that meeting, I think it would be helpful to review CIA's experience with these activities in the recent past. We need, as a basis for discussion, a factual presentation on the numbers of such arrangements, information as to how they originated and what sort of DCI/DDCI review of them took place (if any), how the financial arrangements were organized, etc. Following this, I would like the EAG to review a policy statement developed by you setting forth a Headquarters process for review of future activities of this kind. The draft should address: what kinds of projects will and will not be subject to review, who will review and approve them, what factors are to be considered in making a decision to proceed, and any other points you consider essential. Given the complexity of the subject, I think it is important to circulate this paper for consideration in advance of the EAG meeting, now scheduled for 28 October.
