Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Brammell:

This acknowledges receipt of your letter of July 10 expressing concern with our contribution to the National Intelligence Survey Program.

Prior commitments make it necessary for me to be out of town for the next two weeks. Meanwhile, I have instructed my staff to take a critical look at the total program so that I may discuss its future constructively with you. I suggest we meet for a discussion in the last week of July.

Sincerely yours,

William A. Vogely
Assistant Director--
Mineral Resource Evaluation

NOTE FOR THE RECORD

On 12 July, I called Mr. Vogely's secretary to let her know Mr. Brammell would be away "the last week of July" and would not return till 12 August.

She then told me that Vogely would be away from 12-23 August, and we concluded that the earliest they could get together would be the week of 26 August.

I mentioned this to Mr. Brammell and asked that he be reminded to get in touch with Mr. Vogely that week.
