ADMINISTRATION DIRECTORATE REVIEW: TRENDS AND HIGHLIGHTS

Evaluation

In order to enhance the usefulness of the Trends and Highlights Course to you and future participants, a continuing process of evaluation is necessary. We ask your cooperation in assisting us in keeping the course responsive to the needs of the participants.

COURSE OBJECTIVE

The objective of the course is to update Deputy Director for Administration careerists' knowledge and understanding of current activities, problems and trends in the Directorate and its various offices.

- A. Please indicate on this numerical scale how well in your estimation, the course has met its objective. (Number 1 is the lowest, number 7 is the highest.)

- B. What was the most useful segment of the program to you in your present assignment? The least useful? Please describe how you see the program benefiting you.

The most useful segment was the personnel presentations. I was particularly <sup>interested</sup> in upward mobility, freedom of information and etc. Before I came here I did not know that my office (OJCS) had a career counselor. I plan to see this man in the near future.

(See Reverse Side)

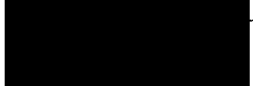

C. Did you feel the session on the Administration Directorate/
Management & Advisory Group (AD/MAG) was beneficial? Why? no

This group appeared to be unsure of what their mission really was. They seemed to wonder if they were, indeed, necessary.

D. Other Comments: When I first got here and heard the schedule for the week I thought that the evening classes were unnecessary. I've changed my opinion ~~because~~ because I found the opportunity to talk to a lot of these knowledgeable men in the informal and friendly setting of our local bar.

The food and service here were first rate. The students were all enjoyable and I had a very enjoyable week here.

STATINTL
