

25X1

ANNEX -1

25X1

[Redacted]

ANNEX -2

[Large Redacted Block]

25X1

25X1

- On 19 November, [Redacted] the Rumanians had successfully resisted Soviet pressures concerning Pact maneuvers in Rumania in 1968. Instead, they will be held there in 1969. [Redacted]

25X1

25X1

[Redacted] diplomatic reports agree that 1969 is the year for maneuvers in Rumania.

25X1

- [Redacted] Nothing of interest was discovered.

25X1

ANNEX -3

25X1

- A French attache in Moscow was told by a Bulgarian attache during the past week that an unidentified unit had deployed to the Rumanian border from the Kharkov area.
- Units in the Kharkov area have not been observed by western attaches since 30 August when these units appeared to be in place.

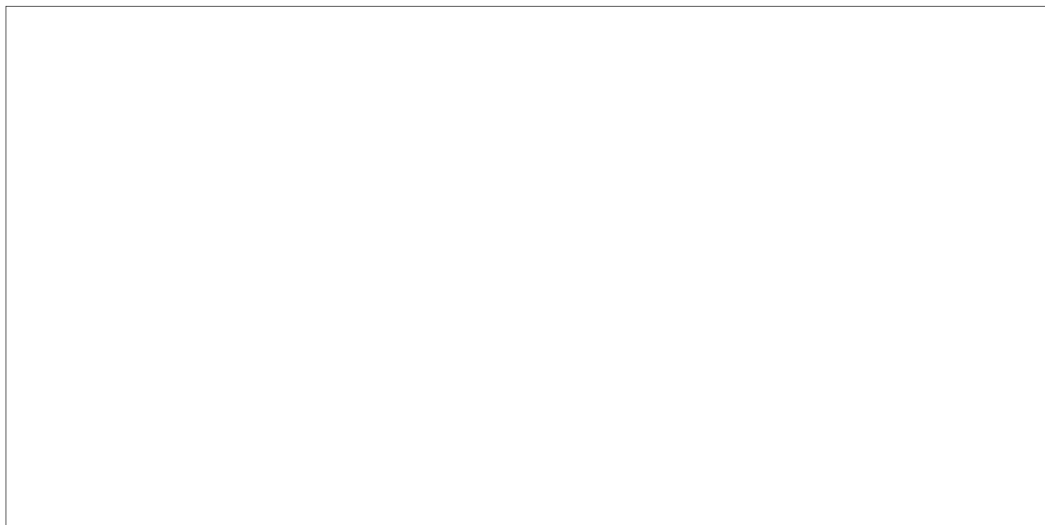

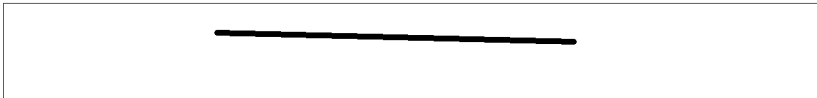

25X1

25X1

25X1

ANNEX -4

25X1
NSA

NSA

- On 20 November in Prague, the Rumanian Counselor met with the DCM of the U.S. Embassy and said that he had no recent indications of a Soviet move into Rumania. He also said that he is no more anxious now than he was in the past several months over the possibility of a Soviet move into Rumania.

25X1

25X1

- On 20 November [redacted] [redacted] [redacted] the Rumanian minister of Defense on a recent trip to Moscow (for the meeting of Soviet Bloc Defense ministers on 29 and 30 October) was pressured by the USSR to permit the stationing of Soviet troops in Rumania; to allow passage of Soviet troops through Rumania at any time at the request of the USSR; and to approve the scheduling of Warsaw Pact maneuvers in Rumania in the near future. [redacted] despite Soviet pressure, the Rumanian government does not intend to accede to the three Soviet requests.

25X1
25X1
25X1

25X1

ANNEX -5

- Rumanian propaganda and news stories have shown no change in their normal flow. There also have not appeared any commentaries or editorials to explain or to justify Rumanian agreement to Warsaw Pact maneuvers in the country at this time as could reasonably be expected. The population, furthermore, has not been called upon by the leadership or news media to prepare to resist a Soviet/Warsaw Pact invasion as was done last August.

(continued)

25X1
NSA

25X1

Page Denied

Next 2 Page(s) In Document Denied

25X1

25X1

25X1

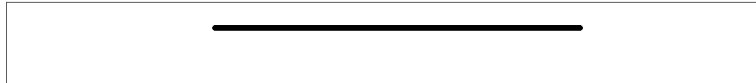

25X1

25X1

25X1

25X1

ANNEX -9

"

25X1

- [redacted] recent concentrations of Soviet troops in Odessa and Moldavia as well as movements of Polish troops in southern Poland. It is rumored in Moscow that Soviet Defense Minister Grechko is in Kishinev and Warsaw Pact Chief of Staff Shtemenko is in Bulgaria.

- Soviet troops in the Odessa Military District were mobilized during the Czech crisis, but we have had no information concerning a subsequent buildup in that area. We cannot confirm Soviet troops in Poland.

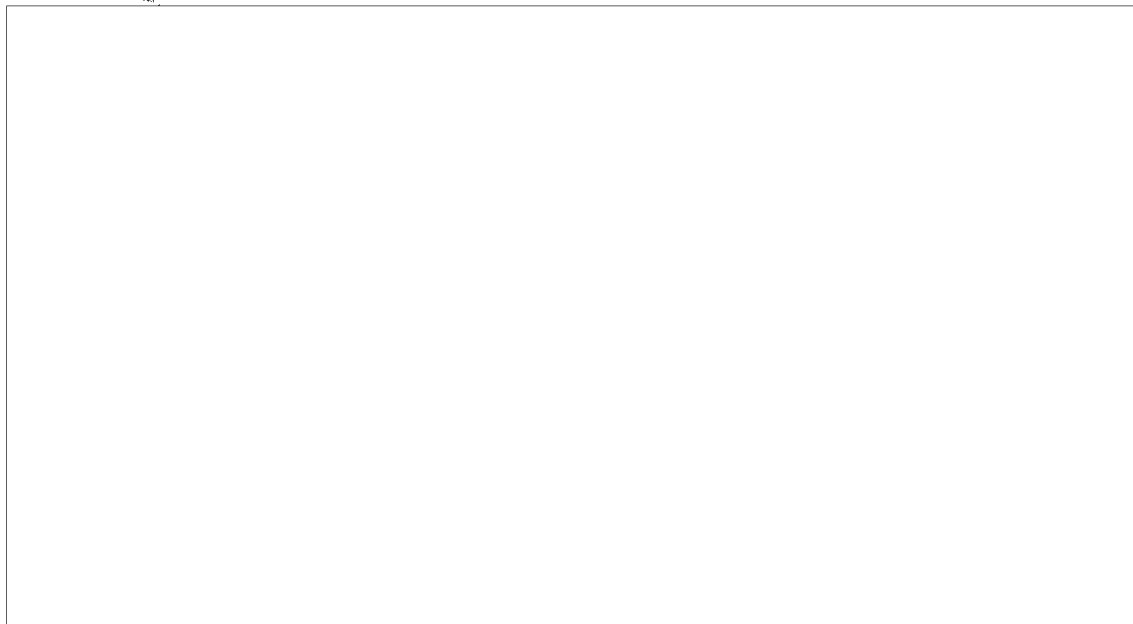

25X1

25X1

- Red Star reported on 16 November that Grechko was in Kishinev on an unspecified date. Shtemenko was reported in Bulgaria as late as 16 November.

25X1
NSA

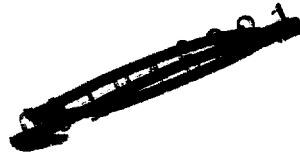

ANNEX -10

- Ambassador Davis met with First Deputy Foreign Minister Macovescu on 21 November. Macovescu was highly skeptical of the rumors of an impending Warsaw Pact invasion of Rumania.
- There has been no noticeable change in the propaganda commentary from Bulgaria, East Germany, Hungary and Poland concerning Rumanian affairs. Nor has there been any effort by these countries to manufacture and propagandize a "justification" for the invasion of Rumania as was the case prior to the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia.

Page Denied

~~TOP SECRET~~

~~0001057~~

0001226

001046821

~~TOP SECRET~~