MEMORANDUM FOR
 Intelligence Community Staff
 CIA Headquarters

FROM For: Walter Collins
 William N. Morell
 Special Assistant to the Secretary for National Security

SUBJECT : Treasury Comments on the Draft of Committee on Foreign Intelligence
 Directive No. One

1. Treasury has no specific comments to make on the major elements of this Directive which really lie outside the purview of the Department of the Treasury.

4. Aside from the above, there is a technical consideration which would make the inclusion of either the Treasury Attaches or the Office of National Security budgets in the NFIP a problem. These activities are not financed from Treasury's regular budget appropriation, but along with some other Treasury international activities, are paid for by proceeds from the Exchange Stabilization Fund. To include them in a NFIP budget made up of Congressionally appropriated funds seems, therefore, inappropriate.
