Dear Jack:

I wish to extend my appreciation to you and the people of your West Coast command who gave so unstintingly of their time to provide me with a most meaningful briefing and tour of your programs.

Hopefully, someday in the not too distant future, I can spend more time with you, but I must say that the few days on the Coast went a long way in demonstrating the complexity, yet miracle, of your endeavors. I commend you for the arrangements which went without flaw, and I ask that you pass on my personal thanks and appreciation to those who aided in making the trip so successful.

Sincerely,

/s/ George Bush
